ATTENTION: Oregon law prohibits the issuance of a concealed handgun license to anyone with a felony conviction, a misdemeanor conviction within the last four years, anyone on pretrial release, or anyone subject to a Family Abuse Prevention Act Restraining Order or Stalking order. Oregon and Federal laws also prohibit a person from owning or possessing a gun if they have had a felony conviction that was reduced to a misdemeanor after completion of probation, any convictions of misdemeanor crimes of domestic violence, or is subject to a court protective order that was issued after a hearing in which the person had an opportunity to participate and restrains the person from harassing, stalking, or threatening an intimate partner or the child of such intimate partner. In addition, 18 USC 922 prohibits anyone who has renounced their United States citizenship, anyone who has been dishonorably discharged from the United States Armed Services, anyone who is an illegal alien and anyone who is an unlawful user of controlled substances from purchasing or possessing firearms. If you are a registered sex offender with either felony or misdemeanor charges on your conviction, you are not able to have a concealed handgun license issued to you.

Oregon law allows for the denial of a concealed handgun license if you have a history, which shows an inclination toward confrontation with others, including neighbors, family members, etc. You may also be denied a concealed handgun license if you have a history of conflict with law enforcement officers, offenses with firearms, documented problems involving alcohol and/or drug abuse. If any of these conditions apply to you and you nonetheless feel you are eligible for a license, return to this office appropriate documentation, dates and explanation of circumstances including copies of any applicable pardons, certificates of discharge, or court orders surrounding your circumstances for further consideration.

CAUTION: Possession of a concealed handgun license does not authorize you to carry a firearm in any federal building, in any courthouse where the presiding judge has posted notice of such prohibition. The Union County Courthouse and courtrooms located at 1007 Fourth Street are posted with this prohibition. If you are apprehended with a weapon on these premises your concealed handgun license may be seized and returned to the Sheriff, and you may be arrested and charged with a crime.

I have read and understand this application. All information submitted is correct. I further understand that making false statements on this application is a misdemeanor and I am subject to prosecution and automatic denial or revocation. All payments are non-refundable.
