

JAIL VISITATION FAQ'S

Q-I have an appointment to visit. Can I bring my (girlfriend/boyfriend/relative/close friend, etc)?

A-Only one adult can visit during each visit.

Q-I want to bring a gift and some cigarettes to the visitation for an inmate. Is that okay?

A-Visitations are non-contact visits and nothing is allowed to be given or passed to the inmate. The best way to get approved items to the inmate is through the mail.

Q-Can I bring small children to the visit?

A-Yes, minor children can accompany the adult visitor, as long as they are a blood relative.

Q-I've heard an inmate can only have three visits per week.

A-This is true. There are only 3 days visitation allowed during the week and an inmate can have a visitor on each of those days.
